

Storm Drain Stenciling
Saturday, 30 July 2005

City and County of Honolulu Department of Environmental Services (ENV)
The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints
American Waterworks Association

Summary: Two hour stenciling project involving 15 volunteers who stenciled 35 storm drains; also observed paint stain in the area of Ala Nanu and Likini; ENV investigation underway as of 29Jul05.

Photo 1

Photo 2

Photo 3

Photo 4

Photo 5

Photo 6

Photo 7

Photo 8

Photo 9

Photo 10

Photo 11

Photo 12

Photo #	Description
1	Group photo at start of storm drain stenciling activity
2	Team 1 Esther, Kristine, Gloria
3	Team 2 Stacia, Edmar, Emma
4	Team 3 Sarah Kira (leader-The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints), Miranda, Dan
5	Team 4 Ariana, Allison, Leah
6	Team 5 Lianna and Trung (leaders-American Waterworks Assn), Sarah S. Hannah
7	Team 2 at corner of Likini and Ala Nanu
8	Encouraging passerber to keep the waters of Hawaii clean by helping educate everyone to: "dump no waste, take care of our ocean", Mai Kilo'i `Opala Mālama I Ke Kai
9	Paint stain at Ala Nani Street
10	Group photo at end of storm drain stenciling activity
11	Group photo at end of storm drain stenciling activity
12	Trash included McDonald's containers; main office number 585-8570

I certify that the attached photos described above were taken by the undersigned and have not been altered:

_____ Iwalani Sato

7/30/05
Date